Reunion 2017 – Last Call

Mike Bickel (Admin Officer)
BICKEL485@AOL.COM

Shipmates:

I know you know about the reunion in the Cleveland area this year and I am including a single signup sheet in case you have lost your other one. It can also be gotten off the web (www.sirago.com and then the newsletter tab and then Reunion Signup).

I'm listing here the 40 crew members that have told me they're coming and there are about 2-3 more who recently asked if they could join the posse but I haven't included them yet. Here are the 40 I have which will grow somewhat:

*** LOST CREW MEMBERS ***

For those of you who are on our email list in the google groups, you will have noticed that Rich McCamant (our illustrious leader, CO, President of this association) has put out about 56 death notices in the last 4-5 months since our last newsletter. I believe he must have gotten some special search tools and was frustrated that so many people whom we had found before, suddenly went missing due to them having been WEB recipients for the most part and then moved (we'd never know their new address) and then, somehow, didn't use that email anymore so we'd lost them completely. But Rich found evidence of death records for a great number of crew members which are listed here... many of whom died some years before:
